Shared Campus International Summer Schools '25

Application deadline: 16 April 2025

Shared Campus is a unique collaborative platform for international education formats and research networks established by 9 leading international arts universities, schools and colleges. It builds connections that generate value for students, academics and professionals, and enables participants to share knowledge and competencies, with a distinct focus on transcultural issues and cross-disciplinary approaches.

The platform is designed around five themes of global relevance:

- Critical Ecologies
- Cultures-Histories and Futures
- Pop Cultures
- Social Transformation
- Collaborative Tools

The summer schools 2025 were elaborated jointly by the Shared Campus partners as part of these themes.

Partners:

- Amsterdam University of the Arts
- City University of Hong Kong, School of Creative Media
- Hong Kong Baptist University
- Kyoto Seika University
- University of the Arts Singapore
- Taipei National University of the Arts
- Tokyo University of the Arts
- University of the Arts London
- Zurich University of the Arts

Shared Campus Summer Schools 2025

Extractive Realities
and Ecological Resonances
7–18 July 2025
Athens

This two-week summer school explores the urban and suburban landscapes of Athens, navigating between industrial towns, farming lands, and sites of ancient Eleusinian mysteries. Mapping land use, past and present, and translating findings into artistic/activist expressions, visible fields and hidden effects on human and other-than-human life will be revealed.

Hacking Global Pop Icons
4–8 August 2025 (online)
11–22 August 2025 (on-site)
Zurich

This summer school has a strong focus on practice-based transcultural and interdisciplinary collaboration. The participants agree on a global pop icon as a common starting point for cultural analysis, discussing their different perspectives and from there create art works, performances or interventions, which will be presented in the form of a joint public event.

The Afterlife of Art in the Age of International Art Biennales
6–20 August 2025
Berlin

This summer school explores the role of international art biennales in shaping cultural, political, and economic narratives. Through field visits, workshops, and collaborative projects, participants will critically examine the “afterlife” of biennale artworks and their ongoing impact beyond the exhibition space.

Creative Appropriation of Contested Spaces:
Arts and Heritage from a Social
Justice Perspective
11–15 August 2025 (online)
18–29 August 2025 (on-site)
Amsterdam

Many cities grapple with contested spaces shaped by their histories. Artists often lead the way in transforming these spaces, offering cultural critiques. Amsterdam’s Marineterrein, a former naval site, is one such example. This summer school explores its past, present, and artistic interventions, culminating in projects addressing societal issues.

traceroute—Practices
in Telematic Performances
25 August–3 September 2025
Singapore, Taipei, and Zurich

In this interdisciplinary course students from various disciplinary backgrounds get the chance to collaborate and create a performance across remote stages in hub locations (Zurich, Singapore, Taipei). Students will explore the aesthetics, narratives, and cultural dimensions of telematic immersive performance-making through learning techniques in staging, scoring, improvisation, and performance art.

Learning from the Earth/Soil
—UN Sustainable Development
Goals × Arts
1–13 September 2025
Ehime Prefecture, Japan

This program explores sustainability through two focuses, re-examining the human relationship with soil and the modern urban planning at two locations to discover the new worldviews. It will take place in Ehime Prefecture, located in western Japan on Shikoku Island, a key regional hub in Asia.

The Afterlife of Art in the Age of International Art Biennales

Title: The Afterlife of Art in the Age of International Art Biennales

Dates: 6–20 August 2025

Location: Berlin

The Afterlife of Art in the Age of International Art Biennales is an interdisciplinary summer school investigating the long-term influence of international art biennales. Using a reflexive research approach, participants will analyse how biennales engage with historical narratives, contemporary socio-political issues, and the global art economy.

Key themes include:

- The impact of biennales on cultural discourse and public perception
- The transformation of exhibited artworks beyond the biennale context
- The role of non-traditional exhibition spaces in shaping artistic narratives
- The political economy of biennales and their effect on local/global art markets

Through guided field visits, research projects, and collaborative discussions, participants will engage with curators, artists, and cultural theorists to develop a deeper understanding of biennale culture and its ongoing influence.

Learning Outcomes / Competences

- Understand the function of international art biennales in cultural and political discourse.
- Develop research methodologies for analysing art's impact beyond exhibitions.
- Critically engage with biennale structures, representation, and accessibility.
- Foster interdisciplinary collaboration between artists, curators, and scholars.
- Enhance skills in public presentation, debate, and reflexive research.
